

Llewellyn M. Branch

Was born in 1957 in the town of Boykins, Virginia to John T. Branch, and the former Thelma G. Barnes. Mr. Branch was raised in Branchville, Virginia, and attended

Southampton High in Courtland, Virginia. Upon graduation, he joined the U.S. Army and was trained in telecommunications. His active duty assignments were with the 21st Signal Company, Ft. Richardson, AK, and the 337th Army Security Agency, Ft. Riley, KS.

Mr. Branch left active duty in 1978 to attend college and enter the civilian workforce. He also joined the active Army Reserves the same year, retiring from the Reserves in the year 2000. Mr. Branch received several awards to include: Meritorious Service Medal, Army Achievement Medal (3 clusters), several certificates of Achievements, and the good conduct medal.

Mr. Branch's civilian assignments include: Assistant Manager, Household Finance, Accounting Technician, National Relations Board, Administrative Supply Technician, Army Reserves, and Accounting Manager, International Management Group. Mr. Branch has been employed by the American Logistics Association since 1988, and has held the positions of: Accounting Manager, Vice-President Operations, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and currently, President.

Mr. Branch has a M.B.A. in Financial Management and a B.S. Accounting, from Southeastern University, Washington, DC.

He is an active member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, the Masonic Order, and various social clubs in the Greater Washington Metropolitan area.